

Symposium on
Prosodic Timing – From Signal to Function

Kiel and Lund Prosody Groups

27 January 2006, 9 – 17

Room HU 140, Center for Languages and Literature, Lund University

Program

Time	Presentation
9.15	Introduction
9.45-10.15	Jan-Olof Svantesson (Lund): Is Kammu a tone language?
10.15-10.45	Coffee Break
10.45-11.15	Felicita Kleber (Kiel): Form and Function of falling pitch contours in English
11.15-11.45	Oliver Niebuhr (Kiel): The contribution of f ₀ , intensity and duration to the perception of German peak categories
11.45-12.15	Ernst Dombrowski (Kiel): Phrase-final rises in turn-yielding and turn-holding: a function-based analysis of a corpus of German unscripted speech
12.15-13.15	Lunch Break
13.15-13.45	Benno Peters (Kiel): Form and function of prosodic boundaries in German spontaneous speech
13.45-14.15	Klaus J. Kohler (Kiel): Functional timing of prosody
14.15-14.45	Coffee Break
14.45-15.15	Gilbert Ambrazaitis (Lund): Prosodic signalling of (un)expected information in South Swedish
15.15-15.45	Susanne Schoetz (Lund): Formant synthesis of speaker age (+ a question regarding prosodic timing)
15.45-16.15	Gösta Bruce (Lund): The role of word accent timing in a typology of Swedish intonation
16.15-17.00	General Discussion